APPENDIX

Group Exercise – Parental Engagement

Parent Council members to divide into small groups to help identify the various types of communications parents have with the school and how these are best communicated.

Please consider the following and come along prepared to discuss the following:

What types of information do you need to tell the school?

How do you currently do this?

What information do you currently receive from the school?

How do you receive this?

What would be your ideal methods of communicating with the school? (2-way)
